- Your Comment: I am distressed to hear that the lease for the Interfaith Shelter at Pete's Place may be terminated without public input or discussion. I understand that the issue of how to help the homeless is difficult, and there are definitely problems with the current shelter location, but it is dismaying to think that they could be evicted without a robust community dialogue. I am also disappointed that the appropriate solution of the disused Juvenile Detention facility on airport road was so easily discarded.
