20 A BILL

21 AMENDING SFCC 1987, SECTION 28-1.5 (“LIVING WAGE ORDINANCE”), TO 22 INCREASE THE CITY’S BASE MINIMUM WAGE AND UPDATE THE FORMULA FOR 23 CALCULATING THE MINIMUM WAGE ANNUALLY.

24 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF SANTA FE:

25 Section 1. Section 28-1.1 of SFCC 1987 (being Ord. No. 2002-13, § 1) is included

1 for reference without amendments:

2 28-1.1 Short title.

3 This section may be cited as the "Living Wage Ordinance".

4 Section 2. Section 28-1.2 of SFCC 1987 (being Ord. No. 2007-43, § 1) is amended 5 to read as follows:

6 28-1.2 Legislative findings.

7 A. The governing body of the city [~~has determined that~~] made findings in 2002, 8 amended in 2003, and then amended again in 2007 as follows:

9 [A] (1). The public welfare, health, safety and prosperity of Santa Fe require 10 wages and benefits sufficient to ensure a decent and healthy life for 11 workers and their families;

12 [B] (2). Many Santa Fe workers earn wages insufficient to support 13 themselves and their families;

14 [C] (3). Many Santa Fe workers cannot participate in civic life or pursue 15 educational, cultural, and recreational opportunities because they must 16 work such long hours to meet their households' most basic needs;

17 [D] (4). Minimum wage laws promote the general welfare, health, safety and 18 prosperity of Santa Fe by ensuring that workers can better support and 19 care for their families through their own efforts and without financial 20 governmental assistance;

21 [E] (5). The average earnings per job in Santa Fe County is twenty-three 22 percent (23%) below the national average and the cost of living is 23 eighteen percent (18%) higher than the national average;

24 [F] (6). Housing costs in Santa Fe are much higher than in most other parts of 25 New Mexico, and low income workers must therefore spend a

1 disproportionate percentage of their income sheltering themselves and 2 their families;

3 [G] (7). Livable wages also benefit employers and the economy as a whole by 4 improving employee performance, reducing employee turnover, 5 lowering absenteeism, and thereby improving productivity and the 6 quality of the services provided by employees;

7 [H] (8). When businesses do not pay a livable wage, the community bears the 8 cost in the form of increased demand for taxpayer-funded social 9 services including homeless shelters, soup kitchens and healthcare for 10 the uninsured. Coupled with high real estate values, low wages reduce 11 the ability of low- and moderate-income residents to access affordable 12 housing. As a result, the city has had to invest significant tax dollars to 13 support affordable housing including funding to nonprofit 14 organizations, purchasing land, building infrastructure and waiving 15 fees. In addition, the city has allocated significant tax dollars to operate 16 after school and summer recreation programs and to support nonprofit 17 organizations offering an array of human services and children and 18 youth services, all of which are needed by very low-income residents 19 and their families;

20 [I] (9). It is in the public interest to require certain employers benefiting from 21 city actions and funding, and from the opportunity to do business in the 22 city, to pay employees a minimum wage, a "living wage", adequate to 23 meet the basic needs of living in Santa Fe;

24 [J] (10). According to the 2000 Census, approximately twelve and three-tenths 25 percent (12.3%) of the Santa Fe community lives below the poverty

1 level; and

2 ~~[K]~~ (11). According to the New Mexico department of labor, twenty-three and 3 one-half percent (23.5%) of Santa Feans who are employed in the 4 nongovernmental sector earn hourly wages of ten dollars and fifty cents 5 ($10.50) per hour or less.

6 ~~[L]~~ (12). The governing body has reviewed the impact of previous minimum 7 wage increases, relevant studies and other appropriate data, and finds 8 that the city's minimum wage should be upwardly adjusted each year to 9 keep pace with increases in the cost of living.

10 ~~[M]~~ (13). The governing body has found that limiting coverage of the minimum 11 wage just to businesses with twenty-five (25) or more employees has 12 hindered compliance and has created an uneven playing field among 13 local businesses.

14 B. In 2025, the governing body of the city finds as follows:

15 (1) The legislative findings in SFCC 1987, Section 28-1.2, numbered 1 through 16 4, 6 through 8, 12, and 13 remain relevant today.

17 (2) Updating the legislative findings in SFCC 1987, Section 28-1.2, numbered 18 5 and 9 results as follows:

19 i. The average earnings per job in Santa Fe County are twelve 20 percent (12%) below the national average.

21 ii. According to the 2023 Census, approximately twelve and two-22 tenths percent (12.2%) of the Santa Fe community lives below the 23 poverty level.

24 (3) According to American Community Survey data, median gross rent for 25 occupied units paying rent in the city of Santa Fe increased by twenty eight

1 percent (28%) between 2015 and 2021, rising from $970 to $1,245.

2 (4) The city has implemented, or attempted to implement, numerous strategies 3 to address housing affordability, including, but not limited to, the Santa Fe 4 Homes Program, Low Priced Dwelling Units, Affordable Housing Trust 5 Fund, three percent (3%) High-End Excise Tax for Affordable Housing, and 6 donation of City-owned land.

7 ~~(5) According to a survey conducted by the Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce in~~ 8 ~~October 2025, more than fifty percent (50%) of the sixty seven business~~ 9 ~~respondents reported paying their employees twenty one dollars ($21.00)~~ 10 ~~per hour or more.~~

11 Section 3. Section 28-1.3 of SFCC 1987 (being Ord. No. 2003-8, § 2) is included 12 for reference without amendments:

13 28-1.3 Authority of the city of Santa Fe.

14 This Living Wage Ordinance is adopted pursuant to the general welfare and police powers 15 conferred upon the city of Santa Fe by Section 3-17-1 et seq. and Section 3-18-1 et seq. NMSA 16 1978, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the city of Santa Fe by New Mexico Constitution, 17 Article X §§ 6(D) and 6(E) and the Municipal Charter Act Section 3-15-1 et seq. NMSA 1978, 18 which have been exercised by the city's adoption of its "Santa Fe Municipal Charter".

19 Section 4. Section 28-1.4 of SFCC 1987 (being Ord. No. 2003-8, § 3) is included 20 for reference without amendments:

21 28-1.4 Purpose.

22 The purposes of this section are:

23 A. To have the city of Santa Fe set an example for the public and private sectors by 24 paying its employees a minimum wage adequate to meet the basic needs of living in Santa Fe.

25 B. To raise the income of low-income employees of employers who contract with the 1 city, receive grants, subsidies or other benefits from the city or benefit from the opportunity to do 2 business in Santa Fe.

3 Section 5. Section 28-1.5 of SFCC 1987 (being Ord. No. 2007-43, § 2) is amended
4 to read as follows:

5 28-1.5 Minimum wage payment requirements.

6 A. The following entities shall pay the minimum wage:

7 (1) The city of Santa Fe to all full-time permanent workers employed by the 8 city. However, the provisions of this section are expressly limited by and subject 9 to future union negotiations in compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act and 10 subsequent appropriations by the governing body in compliance with the Bateman 11 Act;

12 (2) Contractors for the city, that have a contract requiring the performance of 13 a service including construction services but excluding purchases of goods, shall 14 pay the minimum wage to their workers and subcontractors performing work under 15 the contract if the total contract amount with the city is, or by way of amendment 16 becomes, equal to or greater than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00); and 17 (3) Businesses receiving assistance relating to economic development in the 18 form of grants, subsidies, loan guarantees or industrial revenue bonds in excess of 19 twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) to those employed by such entity for the 20 duration of the city grant or subsidy; and 21 (4) Businesses required to have a business license or business registration 22 from the city of Santa Fe and nonprofit organizations shall pay the minimum wage 23 to their workers for all hours worked within the city of Santa Fe that month. For 24 purposes of this paragraph, worker shall not include any person who is related by 25 blood or by marriage to any person who may have or possess any ownership

1 interest in the business that employs them. For purposes of identifying persons 2 entitled to be paid the minimum wage, all individuals employed by or providing 3 work to the business for compensation, whether on a part-time, full-time or 4 temporary basis, during a given month shall be counted as a worker. This definition 5 shall include contingent or contracted workers, and persons made available to work 6 through the services of a temporary service, staffing or employment agency or 7 similar entity. However, interns working for a business for academic credit in 8 connection with a course of study at an accredited school, college or university or 9 persons working for an accredited school, college or university while also 10 attending that school, college or university, or persons working for a business in 11 connection with a court-ordered community service program such as teen court or 12 workers who are in an apprenticeship program in a 501C(3) organization (such as 13 the Santa Fe opera) shall not be counted as a worker for such purposes.

14 B. Beginning January 1, 2004, the minimum wage shall be an hourly rate of eight 15 dollars and fifty cents ($8.50). In computing the wage paid for purposes of determining compliance 16 with the minimum wage, the value of health benefits and childcare shall be considered as an 17 element of wages. On January 1, 2006 , the minimum wage shall be increased to an hourly rate of 18 nine dollars and fifty cents ($9.50). Beginning January 1, 2009, and each year thereafter, the 19 minimum wage shall be adjusted upward by an amount corresponding to the previous year's 20 increase, if any, in the consumer price index for the western region for urban wage earners and 21 clerical workers.

22 C. Beginning January 1, 2027, the minimum wage shall be an hourly rate of twenty 23 dollars ($20.00) seventeen dollars and fifty cents ($17.50). In computing the wage paid for purposes 24 of determining compliance with the minimum wage, the value of health benefits and childcare shall 25 be considered as an element of wages. On March 1, 2028, the minimum wage shall be increased by

1 the average of the annual increase of the following two factors:

2 (1) the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban 3 Consumers, the Western Region, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor 4 Statistics (“Western Region CPI-U”); and

5 (2) Fair Market Rent (“FMR”)for a two-bedroom unit in Santa Fe, New Mexico, as 6 published annually by the United States Department of Urban Development (“HUD”).

7 If either factor is unchanged or decreases, then the minimum wage shall increase by a rate that is 8 equal to half the percent increase of the other factor. If both factors are unchanged or decrease, then 9 the minimum wage shall remain the same. In other words, the annual increase to the minimum 10 wage shall be calculated as follows: annual increase = 0.50 (annual percent increase (if there is 11 one) to Western Region CPI-U) + 0.50 (annual percent increase (if there is one) to the HUD’s FMR 12 for a two- bedroom unit in Santa Fe). Increases to the minimum wage rate shall not exceed five 13 percent and the minimum wage shall not decrease.

14 [C] D. For workers who customarily receive more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per 15 month in tips or commissions, any tips or commissions received and retained by a worker shall be 16 counted as wages and credited toward[s] satisfaction of the minimum wage provided that, for tipped 17 workers, all tips received by such workers are retained by the workers, except that the pooling of 18 tips among workers shall be permitted.

19 [D]E. Nonprofit organizations whose primary source of funds is from Medicaid waivers 20 are exempt.

21 [E. ~~Staff shall contract for a study or studies to review the impact of changes made to~~ 22 ~~the Living Wage Ordinance approved as Ordinance No. 2007-43 on businesses of less than ten (10)~~
23 ~~employees and on the student drop-out rate. The study shall be presented to the governing body no~~ 24 ~~later than July 1, 2009.]~~

2 28-1.6 Prohibitions against retaliation and circumvention.

3 A. It shall be unlawful for any employer or employer's agent or representative to take 4 any action against an individual in retaliation for the exercise of or communication of information 5 regarding rights under this section. This section shall also apply to any individual that mistakenly, 6 but in good faith, alleges noncompliance with this section.

7 B. Taking adverse action against an individual within sixty (60) days of the 8 individual's assertion of or communication of information regarding rights shall raise a rebuttable 9 presumption of having done so in retaliation for the assertion of rights.

14 for reference without amendments:

16 Editor's note— Former subsection 28-1.7, Compliance Through Collective Bargaining Process, 17 previously codified herein and containing portions of Ordinance No. 2002-13, was repealed in its 18 entirety by Ordinance No. 2004-38.

1 the city manager may issue orders to the employer appropriate to effectuate the complaining 2 person's rights, including but not limited to back pay and reinstatement. The city manager also has 3 the power to order termination of any and all economic benefit derived by any offending party from 4 The requirements and provisions of this section and their parts, subparts and clauses are severable.

5 In the event that any requirement, provision, part, subpart or clause of this section, or the application 6 thereof to any person or circumstance, is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or 8 to the maximum extent possible consistent with the governing body's purpose of ensuring a living 9 wage for persons covered by the section.
