- Your Comment: I'm a Army veteran and I fill that the Soldiers' Monument is a representation of what soldiers did to protect and serve the country but not only they provided safe passage through the Sante Fe trail. This Soldiers' Monument today represents the men and women that have serve the State of NM and member of our Armed Forces. So, with I think it needs to be put back to its original state, so we don't lose our history as it seems many people do and don't know much about our history. Don't let it go away what the old Mayor wanted to with all statues around the city.
