8 (1) Powers and duties generally. Police officers shall execute and return all writs and 9 processes directed to them by the municipal judge and, in criminal cases or cases of 10 violations of city ordinances, they may serve the same in any part of the country.

11 They shall suppress all riots, disturbances and breaches of the peace, apprehend all 12 disorderly persons within the city and shall pursue and arrest any person fleeing 13 from justice. They shall apprehend any person in the act of committing any offense 14 against the laws of the state or the ordinances of the city, and forthwith bring such 15 persons before a competent authority for examination and trial. They shall have, in 16 the discharge of their proper duties, like powers and be subject to like 17 responsibilities as sheriffs or constables in similar cases.

18 (2) Appointment of police officers; commissions. No person shall assume or exercise the 19 functions, powers, duties and privileges incident or belonging to the office of 20 municipal police officers without first having received an appointment in writing, 21 known as a "commission", from the governing body. The advice of the chief of 22 police shall be obtained in the employment and commissioning of all police officers 23 of the department.

24 (3) Training schools and examinations.

25 (a) There shall be held and conducted at such times as may be prescribed by the chief

1 of police, with the approval of the governing body, schools for training in modern 2 police methods and practices. The schools for training and the checking of the 3 qualifications and general fitness of applicants for positions in the police 4 department shall be under the direction and supervision of the chief of police.

5 (b) All members of the police department shall take such examinations as may be 6 prescribed.

7 (c) In the taking of all written examinations there shall be assigned to each applicant a 8 number which shall be endorsed on the applicant's examination papers, and the 9 grading of the examinations shall be by number only.

10 (d) Except as otherwise provided, no member shall be retained in the police 11 department and no applicant shall be appointed to the police department unless 12 such member or applicant, after taking the prescribed training courses, has 13 successfully passed the prescribed examinations, written and oral; provided, that 14 the minimum educational qualifications required by the City Personnel Act shall 15 not apply to members of the present police department who are otherwise qualified 16 under the provisions hereof; provided further, that in passing on the qualifications 17 of members of the present police department, consideration shall be given to:

18 (i) Length of service and faithfulness to duty; and

19 (ii) General aptitude for police work as disclosed by the individual records of such 20 members to be confirmed by oral examinations.

21 (4) Extra or emergency police officers. The city manager may employ on behalf of the 22 city such extra or emergency police officers as may be required in the proper 23 administration of municipal affairs.

24 (5) Police department reserve.

25 (a) Created. There is created the city "police department reserve force", hereinafter

1 referred to as the "reserve".

2 (b) Control by Chief of Police. The reserve is under the exclusive control of the chief 3 of the city police department who shall have the sole and exclusive authority to:

4 (i) Summarily discipline or dismiss members without appeal to any body or 5 tribunal;

6 (ii) Approve or disapprove all bylaws, rules and regulations of the reserve; and

7 (iii) Approve or disapprove all officers, employees or agents of the reserve.

8 (c) Authority. The reserve and its individual members shall only have authority in law 9 enforcement on specific request by the city police chief. A specific request shall be 10 made for each individual instance of service.

11 (d) Powers and Duties.

12 (i) The duties of the reserve are to assist in enforcement of law by cooperating 13 with all law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies.

14 (ii) The reserve or its members when acting upon call, and only when acting upon 15 call, of the city police chief, for the city or for another law enforcement agency 16 or regulatory authority, shall be possessed of the same powers and duties as a 17 city police officer or an officer of such law enforcement agency or regulatory 18 authority.

19 (e) Call of Members. When the city police chief calls up the members of the reserve, 20 the call shall be in writing, list the names of each member of the reserve called, the 21 purpose of the call, and the date and time the call begins and terminates. Except 22 when on call, reserve members shall have no more authority in law enforcement 23 than that of any private citizen.

24 (f) Requests for Assistance. Should any law enforcement agency or regulatory body 25 desire assistance from the reserve, the request shall be made to the city police chief

1 who may authorize it, if:

2 (i) Reserve members are fully covered by the workman's compensation insurance
3 policy of the assisted agency or body, and this is evidenced by a writing 4 presented to the chief; and

5 (ii) Any and all liability that may arise against the city, its officers, employees or 6 agents, the reserve, or its members as a result of such assistance, is assumed in 7 writing by the assisted agency or body.

8 (g) Worker's Compensation. The city shall immediately take steps to provide 9 necessary worker's compensation insurance for the reserve and necessary liability
10 insurance covering liability that may arise against the city, its officers, employees
11 or agents as a result of the activities of the reserve on behalf of the city. If any or a 12 portion of such liability is to be self-insured, the self-insurance fund shall be 13 increased accordingly.

14 Section 13. [NEW SECTION] Creating Section 2-8.13 of SFCC 1987, amending 15 language from Section 2-8.9 "Fire Department" (being Ord. No. 2025-8, § 3 as amended), to 16 read as follows:

17 2-8.13 - Fire Department.

18 (1) Department authority and powers.

19 (a) Pursuant to NMSA 1978, Sections 3-18-1, F[-] and G[-] [~~NMSA 1978~~] and NMSA
20 1978, Section 3-18-11[B-(4)], the city may provide proper means for protection 21 from fire and protect the property of its municipality and its inhabitants and 22 preserve the health, safety, peace and order within the municipality. Therefore, the 23 stated purpose of this subsection is to grant the fire department all authority 24 necessary to protect life and property from the hazards created by fire, explosion, 25 and similar emergencies.

1 (b) The fire department shall have full and complete authority in connection with 2 fighting, mitigating, and preventing the spread of any fire that may arise within the 3 city, with the power to do and perform all necessary or expedient acts for the 4 fighting of fire. When called to a fire, the fire department shall have:

5 (i) Full and complete authority of the premises to which it has been summoned 6 until the fire has been extinguished and the premises are deemed safe by the 7 fire department; and

8 (ii) By emergency vehicle or by foot, the right of ingress and egress on all public 9 or private streets, alleyways, roads, driveways, and thoroughfares located 10 within the city limits or the city annexation areas.

11 (c) The fire department shall have full and complete authority in connection with the 12 provision of prehospital emergency medical services within the city, with the 13 power to do and perform all necessary or expedient acts for the provision of these 14 services. (d) The fire chief shall have full authority to sign agreements, 15 approved by the city attorney's office, with landowners to implement fire hazard 16 mitigation activities.

17 (2) Department members designated as special police officers. Every member duly 18 enrolled and in good standing in the fire department shall be a special police officer
19 of the city with power to act as such from the time of the sounding of any fire alarm
20 until the apparatus and equipment for fighting fire has been returned to the fire 21 station.

22 (3) Obstructing or interfering with firefighters. It is unlawful for any person to obstruct 23 or interfere with firefighters while in the discharge of their duties.
